

I understand the FCC proposing to expand Low Power FM service. I listen at all hours to KLOVE which is locally broadcast 91.3 on an FM translator. KLOVE is commercial-free, family-friendly, old-fashioned values broadcasting and I would be extremely upset if I could not access it. It unites this country in THE MOST POSITIVE way radio can.